CASE NO.5:09-cv-00756-W

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Comes now the plaintiff herein, Larry Collins, and for his motion for reconsideration and request that the court reconsider and set aside its order granting separate defendants', STS and Tom Wilson, motions to dismiss.

Plaintiff's delay in responding was not meant as confessing the averments of their motions. Plaintiff's and defendants' counsel had agreed to extend the Plaintiff's time within which to answer their motion to dismiss. Attached hereto is a copy of defendants' letter confirming this agreement.

Plaintiff's counsel confesses to his error in not alerting the court to the parties' agreement by filing a motion for an extension of time. However, discovery is moving apace. The parties have depositions schedule for next week and Tom Wilson has been noticed to appear to be deposed on the 8th.

The request for reconsideration and extension is not meant for delay and will not prejudice the parties.

Wherefore, the Plaintiff herein, Larry Collins respectfully prays that this court grant his motion for reconsideration and set aside its Order dismissing STS and Tom Wilson; and for all further relief to which he may be entitled.

Respectfully submitted for
Larry Collins, plaintiff herein
